

GOV. ROOSEVELT'S 53D DAY:

CROWDS PRESS TO HEAR HIM IN THE CATSKILL REGION.

Notable Meetings in 53d. of the State—Gov. Roosevelt's 53d day in office was marked by a number of notable meetings in the Catskill region. They are rock-ribbed Republican counties, though the population in the parts through which the Governor travelled today is not very numerous after the end of the summer season. The head of the speakers' bureau, Mr. Lafayette Garrison, of New York, who is in charge of the tour, says that the Governor will be met by a large number of people, and that the Governor will be met by a large number of people, and that the Governor will be met by a large number of people.

One great good has been accomplished by his labors, and the Governor takes great pleasure in believing that to some small extent he is removing from the troubles of the next State administration the steady grumble of the people of the Catskill counties and especially of Delaware county that nobody in the Republican party has any interest in them. The Governor has had no political or personal interest in the party, but he has been very successful in removing from the troubles of the next State administration the steady grumble of the people of the Catskill counties and especially of Delaware county that nobody in the Republican party has any interest in them.

MUSIC FOR ROOSEVELT NIGHT.

There Will Be Many Bands, and Chorus of Trained Voices as Well.

The Republican County Committee's welcome and reception for Gov. Roosevelt, which will be held in Madison Square Garden on Friday evening has outgrown the expectations of President Greene and his fellow campaigners and promises to be one of the most notable political demonstrations ever held in New York city. The spectacular features of the affair will be more elaborate than those of any previous demonstration. About Madison Square Garden there are to be twenty open air meetings, at each of which there will be five speakers. These speakers will address the crowd from raised platforms, and on each platform there will be a band and chorus of trained singers. On the top of the Madison Square tower there will be an enormous searchlight, and this will beat the time for all the bands. The musical programme will begin as soon as the eight o'clock train arrives at the Garden. The bands will be arranged in a line, and the searchlight will be turned on to the speakers' stands which will be arranged in a line. ## WILCOX ARRIGNS BELMONT.

Holds His Rival Candidate Responsible for "Verdict."

William R. Wilcox, the Republican candidate for Congress in the Third Congressional District, today arraigned his rival, Mr. Belmont, in a large meeting in a vacant store on Third avenue, between Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh streets, last night. Mr. Wilcox directed his remarks mainly against statements printed in the Verdict, the personal organ of Mr. Belmont, in which the Democratic candidate for Congress had been accused of having been in the hands of the "Verdict" in the election. Mr. Wilcox declared that Mr. Belmont, in the hands of the "Verdict" in the election, had been accused of having been in the hands of the "Verdict" in the election. ## BRYAN TO CATCH NEW YORK.

That's the Excuse He Gives to Chicago Managers for Not Spending Time There.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Whether Bryan will spend three days in Chicago next week or only one was a question that agitated Democratic leaders at the national, State and county headquarters today. A statement had been published that Bryan would spend three days in Chicago next week or only one was a question that agitated Democratic leaders at the national, State and county headquarters today. ## NO MORE CASH FOR REFORM CLUB

So Long as It Exalts Warner, Shepard and Other Bryanites.

Charles S. Fairchild, chairman of the Sound Currency Committee of the Reform Club of this city, today wrote to the members of the club, asking them to contribute toward the good work of the committee. Mr. Fairchild has answered as follows: "My dear Mr. Fairchild: A few days ago I received a communication from the Reform Club, asking me to contribute toward the good work of the committee. ## 165,000 HAVE ENROLLED.

SOUND MONEY PARADE TO BE GREAT-EST PEACE-TIME DEMONSTRATION.

Nearly 40,000 Men Representing the Dry Goods Trade Will Lead the Line and Following Them Will Come 10,000 Engaged in the Banking and Brokerage Business. Edward A. Drake, the hard working secretary of the Business Men's Republican and Sound Money Association, which has charge of the parade which is to be held in this city on Nov. 3, announced yesterday that up to date 165,000 men had enrolled their names on the lists and declared their intention of being in the parade on Saturday.

"Of course I do not believe that there will be so many in the parade," said Mr. Drake, "but those are the figures as they stand now and there are still two more weeks in which individuals or organizations can apply for places in the line. To applications which are received before Thursday, the parade will be held on Saturday, and to those which are received after Thursday, the parade will be held on Sunday. The parade will be held on Saturday, and to those which are received after Thursday, the parade will be held on Sunday."

There are some who think that with 165,000 men enrolled and under promise to parade, there ought to be more than 165,000 men in the parade, and there may be, but Mr. Drake thinks that it is pretty apt to be right, for Mr. Drake has been running Republican parades in this town for a great many years. Gov. Roosevelt sent on his acceptance of the invitation to review the parade yesterday and it was received in the afternoon by Mr. Drake. Although President McKinley will not be present, he takes the greatest interest in the parade, and his secretary telephones every once in a while to find out how things are going. He sent on word several days ago that he was glad to see the business men, bankers and the brokers in line, but he was not sure that they would be a goodly outpouring of labor. Mr. Drake said that there would be a good representation of labor men, and even since he has had men out organizing the men of the labor union who want to march in the parade, several thousand of them will be in line, and their presence will be a fitting tribute to the laboring man.

DON'T WANT OLD MAN CREAMER.

Absolons in the Eighth Prefer Van Cott for Congress—So Do Others.

Mr. Croker and Corporation Counsel John Whelan are alarmed over the condition of affairs in the Eighth Congressional district. Things are not looking cheerful for Thomas J. Creamer, Mr. Croker's candidate for Congress. Mr. Whelan, at whose request Creamer, who was an assistant in the Corporation Counsel's office, was nominated, is doing his best to make Mr. Croker believe that the Democrats will carry the district, but he is having a hard job. The trouble comes largely through the turning down of Daniel J. Roridan, the present Congressman from the Eighth, for re-nomination. Roridan is ostensibly in line and his friends are making a bluff at hustling, but they feel sore and this feeling is noticeable all over the district, especially among the young men. Roridan is a young man. He is only 35 years old. He is very popular. He has lived all his life in the district. He has been a member of the Assembly for many years. He has been a member of the Assembly for many years. He has been a member of the Assembly for many years.

Mr. Croker's Absolons views were hailed with delight by all the young men who were hustling and hustling. They thought it was a grand thing to give the young men a chance to get to the front. Roridan was a young man with lots of friends. He was the one the district wanted to nominate. He was the one the district wanted to nominate. He was the one the district wanted to nominate.

WELL, WHO IS THE FORGER?

DEMOCRATIC VERSION OF THE "ODELL" LETTER RUN DOWN.

McGuire Says, Ask Murphy—Murphy Says, Ask James O. Woodward—Meanwhile Republicans Track the Real Letter, Which Bears No Resemblance to the Forger. The chief occupation of the Democratic campaign managers since Friday of last week has been to dodge the responsibility for the forged letter which was given out for publication by Chairman McGuire of the Democratic State Executive Committee. This letter, it will be remembered, purported to be addressed to a Republican of Greenwich, Washington county, and to be signed by Chairman Odell of the Republican State Committee. Mayor McGuire furnished to the press a typewritten manuscript which he said was handed to him by ex-Senator Murphy, and which purported to be a verbatim copy of a letter asking the Washington county Republican to send to Mr. Odell the names of ten independent Democrats in his district who could be "influenced" to vote the Republican ticket, and to notify Mr. Odell of the expense involved. As soon as Mr. Odell was asked about the letter he denounced it as a fraud and a forgery. When this information was taken to Mayor McGuire he said that the letter was furnished to him by Senator Murphy and that affidavits would be provided to back it up.

Every day since then the reporters have been hunting for those affidavits. Mayor McGuire telegraphed to one of the Democratic workers in Washington county on Saturday morning, asking him to make the necessary depositions. Since then the Democrats have said that they expected the affidavits to come in by the end of the week, but they have not yet come. McGuire says: "I telegraphed to Washington county for the affidavits, but they have not yet come. They would come to me, however. They would be more likely to be sent to Senator Murphy. He is the man who was in charge of the letter, and therefore he would receive the corroborative evidence. I have not received any affidavits. Senator Murphy can probably tell you about them."

Senator Murphy sits in his parlor at the Hoffman House waiting for the affidavits. His statement is that William S. Connel, a Republican, told him that he had seen the letter to whom the letter was sent. Senator Murphy says that Connel was a Republican, and that he was in Greenwich at the time. GREENWICH, Conn., Oct. 23.—The Greenwich Branch followers captured the Democratic caucus held here to-night to nominate candidates for Judge of Probate and Representatives to the Legislature and defeated the present Judge, George G. McNeil, mainly, it was said, because he was a warm personal friend of E. T. Woodard. Two weeks ago Mr. Bennett declined to give the Mianus Branch Club a subscription for the purchase of a banner and wrote the club a letter in which he said he could not support the caucus.
